PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

"I've always heard that Prince Edward Island was the prettiest place in the world."

—ANNE SHIRLEY

HOME

The kitchen light of Green Gables winked a friendly welcome.

AVENUE

The White Way of Delight was a stretch of road completely arched over with huge,
wide-spreading apple trees.

POND

The Lake of Shining Waters was a glory of many shifting hues.

GARDEN

In the beds old-fashioned flowers ran riot.

WOOD

The firs in the Haunted
Wood were all feathery and wonderful.

FIELD

The dews were so heavy that the fields glistened
like cloth of silver.

BROOK

Down through the hollow
the brook ran and scores of white birches grew.

ORCHARD

The orchard on the slope below the house was in a bridal flush of pinky-white bloom.

SEA

Beyond lay the sea, misty and purple, with its haunting, unceasing murmur.
